

THE LACLEDE BLADE.

Volume 33, Number 21

LACLEDE, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1922.

$1.00 A Year in Advance

TOWN AND COUNTRY

About Local People and Events and Other Matters of Interest

Fresh cow for sale by J. Finley Farrar.

Black face buck for sale by C. V. Jennings.

Beef roast, 2-lbs for 25c Saturday. Dick's Meat Market.

Six buck lambs, $10.00 for choice, for sale by L. T. Ringland.

Jonathan apples, 50 cents per bushel at orchard. L. T. Ringland.

Let us take your measure for a new overcoat. Price $15.00. Variety Store.

Buy a pretty apron. Where? At the fair at Forker, Wednesday, October 4.

Residence for sale. Well located, good cave and electric lights. Mrs. E. B. Skulley.

Carlos Anderson left Monday for St. Louis with a car of hogs for the shipping association.

Regular meeting of Pershing's Old Home Post, American Legion, Thursday night, October 5.

The October meeting of the city council will be held at the clerk's office next Monday evening.

For Sale--Good re-cleaned timothy seed; also Keefer pears and Damson plums. H. S. Culbertson, phone 17f12, Brookfield.

Eugene Sidebottom, a well known and highly respected farmer, passed away quite suddenly at his home northeast of Meadville last Monday evening.

The Royal Neighbors will meet this Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. G. Groes. It is earnestly desired that every member who can be present.

There will be 21 spring gilts in Grover Peacher's Spotted Poland sale next Wednesday instead of eleven as stated in his advertisement on another page of The Blade today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lomax left yesterday for a ten days' trip to the Ozarks, their principal visit being at the home of Mr. Lomax's niece, Mrs. Mae Turner Hyder at West Plains.

The ladies of the Christian church will serve a chicken dinner at the Rest Room Saturday of this week. All are invited to patronize them as the dinner is to raise funds for the church.

Chas. W. Shive, who spent his boyhood days at the family home at Forker but went east many years ago, sent in a dollar this week to have The Blade sent to his address in Quakertown, Pa.

J. H. Clough was here from Forker on business Monday and called and renewed for The Blade. Mr. Clough says the late rains put the ground in fine condition for wheat seeding. He is putting out 40 acres and will seed the first week in October.

Manager Wasgien, of the DeGraw theatre, Brookfield, was a business visitor to Laclede Tuesday and called on The Blade. Mr. Wasgien, who recently took charge of the DeGraw, is putting on some great pictures as will be seen by his advertisement in The Blade today.

Reading Circle Meeting

After the summer vacation the American Reading Circle met in regular session at the home of Mrs. J. H. Brown, Tuesday evening, with their efficient president, Mrs. J. W. Lomax, presiding. At roll call a large number responded with current events on Missouri's governors.

Mrs. Bigger gave a lesson on "Who is Who Among Missouri's Governors."

Mrs. Flo Shell favored with several favorite vocal solos which were a delight to all.

Mrs. Elvert Monnett rendered a beautiful instrumental solo.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Flo Shell, Miss Minnie Tripper, Miss Hazel Slusher, Miss Merle Myers and Mrs. Monnett.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Country Fair at Forker

An old fashioned country fair will be given by class 6 of the Forker church on the church lawn next Wednesday evening, October 4.

Attractions for the evening are as follows: Orchestra music; a big bazaar; baby show; a snappy program; fortune telling; fish pond; merry-go-round.

There will also be plenty of red lemonade, home made ice cream, peanuts, candy, and hamburgers to make the fair complete.

Go to Forker and have a good time next Wednesday evening.

Do You Like England?

If you are an admirer of England, its scenery, its architecture, its literature and its actors, you will be interested in "The Call of Youth," which will be on view at the Laclede theatre Saturday night.

The picture was adapted by Eve Unsell from Henry Arthur Jones' play, "James the Fogy," which was never produced on any stage, but which formed excellent screen material. It was made by the Famous Players-Lasky British Producers at the new studio near London and the actors were transported to many scenic spots of England for the scenes. The cast is all-English, being headed by such well known players as Mary Glynn, Jack Habbe, Ben Webster and Malcolm Cherry.

The Best Hog Feed For the Money

A dollar saved is a dollar made. We can sell you a hog feed with a guaranteed analysis of more than 22% protine for $1.80 per hundred pounds, and one with more than 27% protine for less than $2.00 in thousand pound lots or more.

Laclede Farmers Exchange.

Farm Loans

Come in and let us show you that we can save you money on that farm loan, as we have secured the agency for one of the largest loan companies in the east. Savage & Allen.

Car Potatoes Rolling

We will have a car of genuine Red River Ohio potatoes on the track next week. We guarantee these potatoes to be well matured and strictly fancy grade and as the season is getting late you can't make a mistake in placing your order with us for what potatoes you will need. Even weight 2 bushel sacks $1.75 the sack. The Home Store.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

Miss Allene Byrd was hostess at a six o'clock dinner Tuesday in honor of Miss Maxine Singleton of Brookfield, Misses Naomi Burnett and Gretna Spokesfield being the other guests.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Louise Kuhn Wednesday, October 4, at 2:00 o'clock. Leader, Mrs. A. S. Byrd. A full attendance is desired as this is the first meeting of the new year.

Edward Spencer, a Laclede colored man who was taking care of a string of race horses and making the fairs, fell dead while loading his horses at Lawrence, Kansas, Monday morning. The remains were brought to his home here Tuesday and the funeral was held yesterday. He leaves a wife but no children.

Mrs. L. F. Moore and daughter, Miss Catherine, were hostesses to the P. E. O.'s Wednesday afternoon. Responses to roll call were "Since Last we Met." Mrs. Bigger had a most interesting study on "Human Nature in the Bible." Delicious refreshments were served.

Fred Keune was the guest of honor at a birthday surprise at his home on route two last Sunday. On returning from Sunday school he found a number of his neighbors and friends there on their own invitation but he assured them they were heartily welcome. The visitors had brought well filled baskets and a sumptuous dinner and a general good time was had by all.

The result of the ball game between Laclede and Brookfield last Friday was a score of 6 to 5 in favor of Brookfield. This was the second game between these teams this season, the score being the same each time. The next game will be on the Laclede grounds this Friday afternoon, the game to be called at 2:30. Laclede should take an afternoon off and give the home boys a good crowd and strong backing today.

Peacher's Spotted Poland China hog sale will be held at his farm 3 1/4 miles northeast of Laclede next Wednesday, October 4. Mr. Peacher is the pioneer breeder of Spotted Polands in that vicinity and has built up a great herd and those who get breeding stock at this sale will get something that is worth having on the farm and will be money makers. The sale will begin at 11:00 and dinner will be served by the Baptist ladies.

Rome Copper Nickel-plated tea kettle sale. Bring in your old tea kettle, we don't care whether it is full of holes, handle broken or the lid lost we will sell you one of our regular $1.65 tea kettles while our stock lasts for $1.25 and your old tea kettle. The Home Store.

Local and Personal

Piano for sale. Inquire at this office.

Boiling beef, 3-lbs for 25c at Dick's Meat Market.

Six shoats, weigh 40 to 50 pounds, for sale by Jas. Davis.

Miss Lulu Hanson went to Columbia Sunday to enter Stephens college.

Mrs. S. E. Carothers is here from Waco, Texas, for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ward Wilson of Wheeling spent Wednesday here with her mother, Mrs. Geo. Moran.

Fresh cranberries, cantaloupes, celery, sweet potatoes and cabbage at The Home Store this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Peacher motored to Cameron and spent the weekend with Walter West and family.

N. Byrne has been in New York this week with a shipment of poultry for the Henderson Produce Company.

Miss Ella Stark goes to St. Joseph tomorrow to spend a week with her sisters, Mrs. E. E. Berry and Mrs. H. Landree.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Loma and daughter, Miss Laura Dale, of Brookfield spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lomax.

If you are in need of a good range or heater don't buy until you have seen our line. We sell quality stoves and our prices are right. The Home Store.

Carrier Ed. Finney is taking his annual vacation and is spending a few days in St. Louis this week. Substitute Carrier Harry Glover is serving route three.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Power and daughter and son, Miss Gladys and Byron, and Miss Pearl Power, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Polo and Braymer.

The L. C. N. club held their September meeting with Mrs. C. E. Goosey last Thursday. A most enjoyable day was spent. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ralph Eichman, October 12.

Mrs. E. B. Skulley and son, Herbert, are visiting her daughter, Mrs. Allene Walker in Kansas City and will visit her sister, Mrs. W. L. Bailey and family at Baxter Springs, Kansas, before returning.

Attorney Paul VanOsdol, republican nominee for circuit judge, with his wife and two children, were here Saturday morning enroute to the school picnic and fair at Shafter, in the northwest part of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lomax left Wednesday afternoon for St. Joseph where they will spend a couple of days buying new goods after which they will go to Los Animas, Colo., to visit their son, J. Clair, and wife. They expect to be absent ten days.

Miss Gladys Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daniels of Meadville, formerly of Laclede, was united in marriage with Mr. Lonnie Short of Kansas City on Sunday, September 17. The ceremony took place at Oakley Methodist parsonage in Kansas City. They will reside in Kansas City near which place the groom has an interest in a dairy.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Brief Mention of Those Who Come and Go During the Week

Shall we measure you for that new suit now? Variety Store.

Max Deininger was home from the state university for the weekend.

Mrs. Allie Harter and Mrs. J. E. Welsh were weekend guests of Brookfield friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frakes and baby were business visitors here from Forker Monday.

Constable White, Squire Cushing and C. B. Henley were in Rothville on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kraft of Kansas City visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kraft here this week.

W. R. Barton spent Monday with his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Hatcher and family at Columbia.

Let Ouija tell your fortune at the country fair at Forker next Wednesday evening, October 4.

Get a good chicken dinner Saturday with the ladies of the Christian church, at the Rest Room.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webb of Linneus drove to Laclede and visited Mr. and Mrs. James T. Davis, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gardner will go to Kansas City Saturday to visit their sons and take in the fall festivities.

S. T. Zumalt, district deputy for the Modern Woodmen and John Cover of Chillicothe, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Ritchey left Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Ira Thompson and family at Cambridge, Ohio, and will also visit other relatives in that state.

Mrs. Harry Mahurin and Mrs. Bert Frazier of route three were pleasant visitors at this office last Thursday, each renewing their subscription for another year.

Frank B. Day left Wednesday for Illinois on receipt of word that his father had passed away that morning. He was 69 years old and had been ill for some time.

Mrs. Ida Davis, deputy for the Royal Neighbors, was at Brookfield Tuesday to meet the county officers to arrange for the county convention and class adoption to be held at Meadville on Saturday, October 21.

A boy baby was born to Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Roberts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mouser, Tuesday. Mr. Roberts is superintendent of the Forker high school. He is a nephew of Mrs. Mouser and came here from Indiana.

Miss Gretna Spokesfield will go to Kansas City Saturday to visit her brother, H. A. Spokesfield and wife and will remain there for the fall festivities. Mrs. E. C. Spokesfield will leave Sunday for Kansas City to join her daughter in the visit.

Mrs. Ida Davis, district deputy for the Royal Neighbors, drove to Sumner Monday and met with the Chariton county officers of the Royal Neighbor convention and arranged for the school of instructions to be held in Brunswick in October.